COMMENTS: Waiver request was submitted by report preparer Krystal Ancar via fax and she states that it was an oversight on her part of submitting the report. She said she tested positive for Covid 19 on 12/8/2020 and was still in recovery until the end of January 2021. She said she is still not 100% and due to her fatigue and memory fog she failed to submit the report timely and did not realize it until the candidate called her concerning the letter stating his report was not filed. Upon being informed she immediately submitted the report.

RE: Late Fee WAVIER Request for November 3, 2020 Election
40G Campaign Finance Disclosure Report filed 8 Days Late

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Krystal Ancar, am writing to request a waiver of the $800 late fee for candidate Marcus DeLarge's campaign finance report that was due on January 14, 2021.

I would like to state that it was an oversight on my part of submitting the report. I tested positive for the coronavirus on December 8, 2020 and was still in recovery until the end of January 2021. To be quite honest, I am still not back to 100% now. Due to my fatigue and memory fog, I failed to submit the report timely and did not realize it until Mr. DeLarge called me concerning the letter stating his report was not filed. Upon being informed, I immediately submitted the report. I have attached my positive test results for the record.

I am humbly requesting that the fee assessed at $800 be waived. I had no intention on submitting the report late however I was not in the correct mind frame to even think about the report.

Thank you for your time and consideration with this matter. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions.

Sincerely,
Krystal Ancar
